ASX Release

Resignation of Director

Mr Scott Douglas has resigned as a director of Resource Generation. Mr Douglas is resigning to pursue other business ventures.

The Board of Resource Generation thanks Mr Douglas for his contribution and commitment to the company over the past four years, during which he was instrumental in bringing the company's original investment in South African coal tenements to fruition. Through further developments this has now progressed to the development plan for the Boikarabelo mine where the company's energies are focused.
